JUST FOR FUN SECTION

"IN A RUT"

Nothing to do but work
Nothing to eat but food
Nothing to wear but clothes
To keep from going nude;
Nothing to breathe but air,
Quick as a flash it's gone;
Nowhere to fall but off,
Nowhere to stand but on,
Nothing to comb but hair,
Nowhere to sleep but in bed,
Nothing to weep but tears,
Nothing to butter but bread,
Nothing to sing but songs,
Ah well, alas! Alack!
Nowhere to go but out,
Nowhere to come but back.

THE SUMMER IS OVER

How did you spend the summer?
Did you hustle to make every moment pay,
Or did you sit and complain the hours away
Or fritter the time in pleasure and play?

Did you dry a tear and make someone smile?
Did you give your time to something worthwhile?
Or did you sit and grumble away the fact
You had time on your hands but no place to act?

Did you lend your time to someone in sorrow
And with a word of condolence bring them a tomorrow?
Or did you say "That is their affair, I have my own troubles so why should I care?"

Did you plan each day with work & pleasure
And thereby gain life's fullest measure?
Or did you sit and groan with folded hands
And waste the time such complaint demands?

How DID you spend the summer?
Are you ready to answer - with this to say.
"Bring on tomorrow. Let us be on our way!
The summer is over - that was yesterday."

Martha Bierkamp

TO OUR SHUT-INS

Hoping that you'll soon be well,
And sending this to say
That many warm and friendly thoughts
Go out to you each day.

PUFFING ALL THE WAY

I can't help but feel
That I'm getting on
When I'm faced with how fast
My a-go-go is gone.

For the December Garden Section meeting on the 6th at 10:30 a.m., Mrs. Edith Ford will display her fabulous collection of dolls. Mrs. Ford, having been in the costume business a number of years ago, retired from this and took up as a hobby the dressing of all kinds and types of dolls in costumes. She will give a short talk on her dolls.

Members are asked to bring any interesting antiques for display only and perhaps for drooling and coveting too.

Home-made cakes will be provided by hostesses Mmes. Durfee, H.S. Brown, Gile, Robertson, Van Beek and Mrs. Sam Marshall; ice cream will be furnished by the Section. Bring your service and sandwiches as usual.

Christmas carols will be sung under the direction of Martha Bierkamp, the accompanist being Lela Cotter.
